Ousted Egypt President dies in military hospital

FORMER Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak – ousted by the military in 2011 – has died in Cairo at the age of 91.

Mubarak (above) spent three decades in office before a popular uprising swept Egypt.

He was found guilty of complicity in the killing of protesters during the revolution.

But that conviction was overturned and he was freed in March 2017.

His death was confirmed by Egyptian state news on Tuesday. Earlier in the day, the Al-Watan website reported that he died at a military hospital.

Mubarak had surgery in late January and was photographed with his grandson as he recovered.

On Saturday, however, Mubarak's son Alaa said that the former president remained in intensive care.

India clashes as Trump talks to PM

NEW violence erupted in India's capital a day after at least seven people were killed and more than 100 others injured in clashes over a new citizenship law that excludes Muslims.

Authorities say protesters in several areas of north-eastern New Delhi defied orders prohibiting the assembly of more than five people and threw stones and set shops and vehicles on fire.

The clashes occurred as US president Donald Trump held talks with prime minister Narendra Modi on the second day of his visit to India.

BLIND EYE TO NONCES

Report blasts Establishment who let perverts abuse kids

THE political establishment spent decades turning "a blind eye" to allegations of child sexual abuse, with high-profile politicians protected from police action as whips sought to avoid "gossip and scandal" which would damage the parties, a scathing report has found.

The long-awaited investigation into historical allegations against MPs, peers and civil servants working in Westminster found that political institutions "significantly failed in their responses to allegations of child sexual abuse".

It cited as an example the evidence of former Liberal party leader Lord Steel, who told the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse last year how he failed to pass on allegations against prominent colleague Sir Cyril Smith – even though he believed them to be true – because it was "past history".

He later recommended Smith for a knighthood.

The report found no evidence of a coordinated "paedophile ring" in Westminster, after claims by fantasist Carl Beech of its existence, and also stated there was no proof such a network was covered up by security services or police.

But it said institutions "regularly put their own reputations or political interests before child protection".

Professor Alexis Jay, who chaired the inquiry, said: "It is clear to see Westminster institutions have repeatedly failed to deal with allegations of child sexual abuse, from turning a blind eye to shielding abusers.

"A consistent pattern emerged of failures to put the welfare of children above political status although we have found no evidence of an organised network of paedophiles within government.

"We hope this report and its recommendations will lead political institutions to prioritise the needs and safety of vulnerable children."

Brits locked in Tenerife hotel sealed off in coronavirus scare

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A TOURIST hotel on the Canary Island of Tenerife has been put in quarantine after an Italian doctor staying there tested positive for the Covid-19 virus.

Municipal chiefs in the town of Adeje confirmed that the restrictions are in place at the H10 Adeje Palace hotel.

Some 1,000 tourists – many British – staying at the complex are not allowed to leave.

The Canary Islands president, Angel Victor Torres, said the Italian doctor who is positive for the disease has been quarantined in a local clinic while samples are analysed in a hospital near Madrid to confirm the initial diagnosis.

The visiting tourist had arrived from one of the areas in northern Italy where a cluster of the coronavirus has infected hundreds of people.

The military have been enforcing quarantine zones in Italy.

The patient voluntarily went to a clinic in Tenerife on Monday when he began feeling unwell.

This is Spain's third case of Covid-19 and the second in the Canary Islands.

Symptoms

A German tourist was quarantined earlier this month on the island of La Gomera and a British citizen in the Med's Balearic Islands.

Both were released after recovering and showing no further symptoms.

The move comes as China and South Korea have now reported more cases of the coronavirus as clusters of the disease grow all across Europe and the Middle East, amid rising global concern.

Markets have been in decline around the world over virus fears, with Wall Street this week mirroring stock exchanges worldwide with a 1,000-plus point drop in the Dow Jones Industrial Average.

The White House has called for an urgent injection of £1.9billion in government funds to help combat the disease, while Washington is set to call off planned annual military exercises with South Korea.

In Beijing, the Chinese government postponed its most important political meetings of the year.

The National People's Congress – due to run for two weeks in early March – and the meeting of its chief advisory body usually bring thousands of delegates to Beijing.

The decision indicated the importance President Xi Jinping places on the battle against the epidemic that has posed one of his biggest political challenges since he took control of the ruling Communist Party in 2012.

China reported 508 new cases and another 71 deaths yesterday – 68 of them in the central city of Wuhan.

EU big guns draw battle lines over UK trade talks

EUROPEAN ministers have signed off on Brussels' red lines for post-Brexit trade talks with the UK.

The proposals put into writing warnings by European Union chief negotiator Michel Barnier (above) that Britain must sign up to a "level playing field" in any free trade agreement.

That could see Brussels attempt to bounce the UK into following some EU rules and standards after the Brexit transition period ends in 2021 – a concession Boris Johnson has already ruled out.

In its negotiation mandate, the EU stated that any future relationship with the UK should be "underpinned by robust commitments to ensure a level playing field for open and fair competition, given the EU and the UK's geographic proximity and economic interdependence".

On fisheries, the EU General Affairs Council also agreed to negotiate to "uphold the existing reciprocal access to waters" – a move that is set to cause tensions with Brexiteers and British fishermen.

Notorious Mafia killer dead at 103

UNDERWORLD figure John "Sonny" Franzese, once the oldest inmate in the US federal prison system, has died at the age of 103.

Franzese was the second-in-command of the Colombo crime family in New York City until well into his 90s and was described by prosecutors as one of the Mafia's most fearsome killers.

Franzese was drafted into the army in 1942 but was discharged later that year due to his "pronounced homicidal tendencies".

He was in and out of jail all his life.

In 2011, he was convicted of extorting protection payments from three businesses and, at the age of 94, he was jailed for eight years.

WELSH FLOOD DAMAGE 'DEVASTATING'

MORE than 1,000 homes and hundreds of businesses in Wales were flooded in recent storms, the Welsh government revealed.

Minister Lesley Griffiths described the damage caused as "absolutely devastating" for those affected and for "Wales as a nation".

A number of flood warnings remain across the country – including on the River Severn – with Mrs Griffiths warning the "threat of flooding" hadn't passed.

The Assembly Member for Wrexham said the cost of the damage was expected to run into "tens of millions of pounds", which the Welsh government would not be able to fund.

She said: "The number of properties that have been affected and the damage and losses caused over the last two weeks right across Wales have been devastating for the individuals.

"And I think also for Wales as a nation.

"I came down from north to south Wales yesterday and to see the impact everywhere … it really, really hits you.

"These were very, very significant storm events – I think we have to recognise that.

"A month's worth of rain fell in 24 hours."

LIZZO: MY MUSIC'S LIKE EATING OSTRICH MINGE!

BIG BIRD: A lady ostrich

(...er, is that a good thing?)

POP beauty Lizzo has compared her music to "fried ostrich pussy".

The 31-year-old star admitted she can understand her critics as she's relatively "new" to the scene, and understood people will generally stick with what they know.

By GRACE HOOPER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Speaking to Rolling Stone magazine, she said: "Look, I'm new. You put two plates of food in front of people, and one is some fried chicken.

"If you like fried chicken, that's great. And the other is, like, fried ostrich pussy.

"You not gonna want to fk with that...

"We eventually get used to everything. So people just gonna have to get used to my ass."

The Truth Hurts star insisted while her music should make "other people feel good", she is keen to send a message "directly to black women" through her songs.

She explained: "As a black woman, I make music for people, from an experience that is from a black woman.

"I'm making music that hopefully makes other people feel good and helps me discover self-love.

"That message I want to go directly to black women, big black women, black trans women."

Lizzo also said her rise in popularity is down to her striving "to be a kinder, happier person", adding: "I wanted to be a kinder, happier person and it's now impacting the world."

Sex once a week poll says 27% get lucky!

ONE in four people only have sex once a week, according to a new nookie survey.

On average, 27% of respondents to the YouGov study said they have sex in any given week – including 11% who do it once, 7% twice, and a lucky 9% who have sex at least three times.

At the other end of the scale, about three in 10 Brits said they were sexually inactive.

YouGov also found that people in their late 20s are more likely to have regular sex than any other age group, with 43% of those aged 25-29 having sex in a typical week.

That starts to change by the late 30s, with 38% of 35-39-year-olds not having sex in the past week, despite claiming to be sexually active.

A spokesman said: "While the youngest Brits still top the league with 3.2 times on average in a week, once people reach their mid-20s, the differences start to shrink."

The survey comes shortly after a study in Pennsylvania found weekly sex can actually help fend off illness.

Researchers found students who had sex once or twice a week had higher levels of an immunoglobulin A – an illness-fighting substance.

The pair had a huge row on Danielle's first appearance on the reality show, but last night they had a heart-to-heart and both agreed they were better as mates rather than lovers.

Danielle, 29, said: "It was all still pretty raw at first – Ashley and I had only broke up two months before the show and emotions came out.

"The break up wasn't an easy one either, so it's no wonder that we started fighting.

"We were really going for it – even my mum was shocked!"

MAN WHO LIVES WITH LIFE-SIZE DOLLS TOOK DEAD SHEEP TO BED

A MAN who lives with nine fully-sized plastic dolls took a dead sheep and deer into his bedroom and "may have posed naked" with them, a court has heard.

Police uncovered a photo of Everard Cunion posing with a sheep carcass while raiding his home during an investigation into allegations of "harassment and stalking" made against him.

The 63-year-old rekindled an infatuation for a school friend 50 years later and began stalking her, despite not having seen her since they left school in 1972.

The photo was found on his computer alongside indecent images in September 2018.

Cunion told officers he had found the sheep on a farm before taking it back to his home and posing with it "years ago".

Prosecuting, Sadie Rizzo said: "Mr Cunion had his PC seized in relation to an unrelated investigation.

"Police then examined his computer and he was arrested again in June last year.

"He went on to describe another incident which involved a deer."

Seven cartoon-style obscene images were found on his computer, along with 20 extreme porn images. They had been downloaded between February 2017 and September 2018.

Mitigating, Kevin Hill said Cunion had not offered any explanation for his actions to the Probation Service, but he said officers from the service believe the defendant does not pose a serious risk to the public.

He said: "He was diagnosed with prostate cancer last year.

"He has been through chemotherapy.

"He tells me that has reduced his interest in sex.

"He is in fear of the prison environment."

Cunion admitted making indecent images and possessing prohibited images and extreme porn.

Sentencing him at Bournemouth Crown Court, Judge Oba Nsugbe QC told Cunion there was an "element of depravity" to his offending. Whether you kept it to yourself or not, it's illegal."

Cunion, of Christchurch, Dorset, was handed a 12-month community order, rehabilitation activity requirement days and a five-year Sexual Harm Prevention Order.

Investigating lawyers hired by the American Guild of Musical Artists, said that the accounts from 27 people showed a clear pattern of sexual misconduct and abuse of power by Domingo over at least two decades.

Domingo said: "I respect these women finally felt comfortable enough to speak out, and I want them to know that I am truly sorry for the hurt that I caused them."

Liam: Movie fans won't see my arse!

HOLLYWOOD legend Liam Neeson has confessed to using a STUNT ARSE as he "hates his Irish butt".

The 67-year-old said he used a stand-in during a nude scene in 2014's A Million Ways to Die in the West.

In the nuddy scene, his co-star Charlize Theron's character, Anna – the wife of Neeson's character, Clinch Leatherwood, whacks a trouserless Liam over the head and cheekily places a flower up his arse.

Appearing on Watch What Happens Live with Andy Cohen he explained: "Mark Vanselow is my stunt coordinator. When we were doing that film I said to him, 'As a sign of our friendship would you ever do this scene where Charlize puts a daisy in your butt?' And he said, 'Sure'."

Neeson added: "I thought, 'There's no fking way anybody is going to see my Irish butt'."

Coronavirus halts latest Cruise flick

FILMING on the latest Mission: Impossible movie has been stopped over fears of the killer coronavirus outbreak in Italy, producers said.

The top action flick, starring Tom Cruise (above), was scheduled for a three-week shoot in Venice, which has been halted after more than 200 people tested positive for the virus in Italy.

It is the largest number of confirmed cases of the disease outside of Asia.

Paramount Pictures said it was following the advice of the Venetian government and using an "abundance of caution" in halting the production.

A statement read: "During this hiatus we want to be mindful of the concerns of the crew and are allowing them to return home until production starts.

"We will continue to monitor this situation, and work alongside health and government officials as it evolves."

It is understood actor Cruise, 57, was not in Italy for filming.

'SHE PULLED DOWN HIS TROUSERS AS HE PLAYED COMPUTER GAMES'

Court told nursery worker had sex with lad, 13

By SUZIE SHELDON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A MARRIED children's nursery worker had sex with a lad aged 13 – and had his baby, a court has heard.

Leah Cordice, 20, is said to have gone to the schoolboy's home, walked into his bedroom where he was playing computer games, and pulled down his trousers.

The sex that allegedly followed sparked more intercourse with the teen – said to have happened on average twice a month, right through Cordice's pregnancy and continued after she gave birth to a baby girl.

Her husband, the jury was told, believed the child was his, but a later DNA test showed the schoolboy was actually the father.

Cordice, who had kept the sexual relationship with the boy a secret, was studying child care while working at a local nursery.

She denies five counts of having sexual activity with a child – three of which were said to have taken lace while she was 17 and two while she was 18.

ON TRIAL: Leah

Prosecutors told how the boy, who cannot be identified for legal reasons, had later said to police in interview: "You are supposed to have sex and, like, love each other. It was just like, she just wanted to do it.

"Now I feel like she did not really care about me."

The jury heard how the woman, then aged 17, had gone to the boy's house drunk in January 2017 and pulled his trousers down while he was playing computer games.

At Reading Crown Court, prosecutor Grace Ong said: "This case concerns the defendant having a sexual relationship with a child.

Testing

"Matters only came to the attention of the local authority in the course of family proceedings in relation to Ms Cordice's child.

"DNA testing revealed that her child is the complainant's biological daughter."

Cordice and the boy had continued having unprotected sex on a regular basis, roughly twice a month, until the start of 2018, the court heard – a few weeks before the boy, who had turned 14, was quizzed by the police.

Ms Ong added: "The boy said that he and Ms Cordice started having sexual intercourse when he was 13-years-old.

"Ms Cordice was drunk, she went around to his address, she went into his bedroom and at first, they talked normally and he carried on playing on his Xbox and watching YouTube.

"Ms Cordice then sat on his bed and started to hug him and kiss him and it carried on.

"He said, 'I could not really say no. She would have kept asking and asking me to have sex'.

"Afterwards, he felt that it was a bit weird and that she did not say anything to him."

The boy had been the first person who Cordice told that she was pregnant, the jury heard, and she had shown him an app on her phone which suggested the date she had conceived was the first time they'd had sex.

While they carried on having sex, Cordice had married her long-term partner and had given birth.

In a police interview video shown to the jury, the boy complainant told of how Cordice's husband had found out about her relationship with him.

The boy told investigators: "Her boyfriend found out. He did not really say anything. He got angry at first. He started shouting at me. Then he didn't say anything to me.

"She spoke about him to me sometimes – just how he'd been accusing her of stuff."

The prosecutor told how Cordice had been forced into taking a DNA test which showed that the 13-year-old boy was her baby's real dad after social services became involved, once the boy's mother called the police.

Cordice was arrested at her home in Windsor, Berks, in July 2018 and later interviewed under caution.

The jury heard she had provided a prepared statement, saying: "I deny any sexual contact with the complainant.

"He has always had a crush on me and he'd make inappropriate remarks and do inappropriate things, such as grab me."

Despite DNA evidence to the contrary, she said: "The complainant is not the father of my child."

Ms Ong told the jury: "She may say she was raped by the boy. The prosecution's case is this claim of rape is a lie."

The trial continues.

Cops probe animal abuse vids

By SUZIE SHELDON news@sundaysport.co.uk

POLICE have arrested three men and seized farm animals after pics emerged of humans having sex with horses and ponies.

An undercover operation was launched after the horrifying images were sent to police officers and the Scottish SPCA.

Three men – Josh Paterson, 19, Jordan Turnbull, 27, and Mark Findlater, 32 – are due to appear at Aberdeen Sheriff Court.

The alleged sexual offences are said to have been committed in Aberdeenshire and Angus last month.

Investigation

A source said: "The Scottish SPCA and police were alerted by a tip-off and an investigation was launched."

Several animals were removed by welfare chiefs following searches of farms and stables.

A police spokeswoman confirmed three men had been arrested.

She added that a report had been forwarded to prosecutors.

OAP's upskirting on train shame

A PENSIONER has been put on the sex offenders' register after taking photographs up a woman's dress on a train.

John Richardson, 72, did the dirty deed on a Waterloo-bound train in September last year.

Richardson, from Shepperton, Surrey, started chatting with his victim after it was announced that their journey would be delayed.

At some point after their conversation, the victim "noticed he was using his mobile phone, by his knees with the camera pointed to the lower part of her body", prosecutor Melanie Hardwick explained.

Richardson was given a 12-month community order. He was fined £1,000 and ordered to pay £400 victim compensation.

Busty Jess, 25, has wowed fans after telly appearances on Ex on the Beach and Celebrity Big Brother.

And it's not hard to see why producers are queuing up to get her on their shows – as she showcases her cracking 34DDs in this raunchy shoot.

As she stripped off Jess, from Haslemere in Surrey, lifted the lid on her steamy side we don't get to see on the box.

She purred: "I think I'm a good girlfriend – I like giving oral."

'New York can't afford to have another Epstein'

UNSTEADY: Convicted frame user Weinstein was taken to hospital

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

HARVEY Weinstein is being "watched like a hawk" on 24-hour suicide watch as authorities fear he may "do an Epstein" and kill himself.

The 67-year-old was taken to hospital on his way to jail after being convicted of sexual assault and rape.

New York authorities are still smarting after Prince Andrew's nonce pal Jeffrey Epstein apparently killed himself in a city jail last summer.

A source at the New York District Attorney's Office said: "The city can't afford another Epstein, so Weinstein is literally being watched round the clock.

"In hospital there's a guard by his bed. When he gets to jail, he'll have a guard in his cell."

Rape

Disgraced former Hollywood producer Weinstein was found guilty of a criminal sex act for assaulting production assistant Mimi Haleyi at his apartment in 2006 and the third-degree rape of Jessica Mann in 2013.

He is now facing up to 29 years in jail, but his lawyers say they will appeal the verdict.

The jury found him not guilty on the most serious charge, predatory sexual assault, which could have resulted in a life sentence.

After the verdict, officers helped unsteady Weinstein to his feet and led him away.

The convict was on his way to the notorious Rikers Island jail to await sentencing on March 11 March.

But he was later taken to Bellevue Hospital, which has a unit that provides medical care to prisoners.

But the criminal jeopardy is not over for Weinstein.

On the first day of his trial in New York, prosecutors 2,500 miles away in Los Angeles announced new charges against him.

He is accused of rape and sexual battery of two women in hotel rooms on successive nights in 2013.

Don't trash our cash, Chancellor warned

THE Chancellor must protect the UK's access to cash in next month's Budget, consumer campaigners are urging, or else the free availability of coins and notes could soon be lost forever.

Bosses at Which? magazine have written to Rishi Sunak ahead of the March 11 Budget, calling for legislation that protects cash for as long as it is needed.

It said the industry's approach so far to tackling cash access has been "lacklustre". The letter to the Chancellor reads: "The UK's ATM network is on the verge of collapse.

"In the past two years, 9,000 free cash machines and 1,200 bank branches have vanished.

"Understandably, millions of people are unhappy about this.

"They rely on cash. For many of them, cash is the only option. Right now, the UK isn't ready to go cashless."

IT'S the latest ITV crime drama and it's had viewers gripped all week.

Flesh and Blood centres around widow Vivien – played by Francesca Annis – who has found a mysterious new man, played by The Crying Game star Stephen Rea.

But her three children – played by Russell Tovey, Claudie Blakley and Lydia Leonard – become suspicious when he moves in.

Imelda Staunton co-stars as their nosy neighbour, called in by detectives when a body is discovered on the beach, in the four-part thriller.

Of course, while we know that "blood" is involved, what about the flesh?

Well, that comes in the form of Francesca, 74, Imelda, 64, Lydia Leonard, 38, and Sharon Small, 53.

Francesca, once romantically linked to James Bond "M" star Ralph Fiennes, famously flashed boobs and bush in a 1971 big screen version of Shakespeare classic Macbeth.

And Harry Potter and Vera star Imelda peeled off for a topless sex scene in the 1991 flick Antonia and Jane.

Meanwhile, Lydia and Sharon have in the past also filmed scenes with nudity.

Flesh and Blood is on ITV 9pm until Thursday night.

You have to hand it to gulls!

SEAGULLS are well known for snatching food from humans, but new research suggests they prefer grub that's been handled.

A University of Exeter study found that when Herring gulls were presented with two identical food items – one of which they had seen a human holding – they pecked more at the handled stuff.

This suggests they use human actions when deciding what to eat, researchers said.

The study follows previous research which found staring at seagulls makes them less likely to steal food.

Senior author Dr Laura Kelley said: "Our findings suggest that gulls are more likely to approach food that they have seen people drop or put down, so they may associate areas where people are eating with an easy meal.

"This highlights the importance of disposing of food waste properly, as inadvertently feeding gulls reinforces these associations."

AUSTRALIA faces an unprecedented threat from espionage and foreign interference, the head of the country's intelligence service said in an annual threat assessment.

In a rare public address, Australian Security Intelligence Organisation director-general Mike Burgess said the severity of the threat level stemmed from the "scale, breadth and ambition" of the interference.

He warned that almost every sector was at risk – including government, media and universities.

Mr Burgess said: "We have seen visiting scientists and academics ingratiating themselves into university life with the aim of conducting clandestine intelligence collection – which strikes at the very heart of our notions of free and fair academic exchange."

AS KELLY BROOK IS SNUBBED BY BOND BOSSES, HERE'S SOME OTHER BABES WHO MISSED OUT ON PLUM ROLES...

MISSED OUT... STRIPPED OFF!

By SIMON DEAN simon@sundaysport.co.uk

TURNS out the world of espionage's loss was our gain...

Because lovely Kelly Brook once auditioned for a role in the Bond movie Die Another Day – but barmy bosses went with Halle Berry instead.

Busty Kelly, 40, told radio co-host Jamie Theakston: "I'd love to be a Bond girl."

After Jamie highlighted that she "almost was one" Kelly laughed: "I auditioned.

"I don't think I was almost anything... they just said 'next'!"

Teased

The starlet added: "It was for Die Another Day – it was the one Halle Berry did."

As Jamie teased that Halle's infamous Bond scene of her emerging from the sea could have been her, Kelly chuckled: "I was considered... for a short second."

So it could have been Kelly striding out of the sea rather than Halle.

But that's showbiz!

Meanwhile, Here are some other beauties who almost ended up in iconic roles...

MIGHT HAVE BEEN: Kelly (right) went for same part as Halle (left)

IN 2009, it was widely reported that Lindsay Lohan had passed on the role of Jade the stripper in the original The Hangover – a part that ended up in Heather Graham's hands.

LINDSAY LOHAN

THE HATEFUL EIGHT (DAISY DOMERGUE) 2015

DIRECTOR Quentin Tarantino said he met with Jennifer Lawrence to discuss her starring in his movie The Hateful Eight, but it was to no avail.

He said: "She was just doing me a courtesy to see me, I think. She was doing Joy. She had to do publicity on The Hunger Games movies."

Jennifer Jason Leigh, 28 years her senior, took the part instead and landed her first Oscar nod.

KATE WINSLET

TITANIC (ROSE DEWITT BUKATER) 1997

AFTER confessing to Howard Stern in 2015 that she declined a part in Boogie Nights, Gwyneth Paltrow tried to evade discussion of passing on the iconic role of Rose in Titanic.

She said: "My mother will kill me that I'm talking about turning down movie roles. She says it's not ladylike."

Kate Winslet got the now-famous part.

CHRISTINA Applegate admitted that she received the script for Legally Blonde just after finishing her show Married... With Children, and she was worried Elle Woods was too similar of a role.

She said: "I got scared of kind of repeating myself.

"What a stupid move that was, right?"

Fellow blonde Reese Witherspoon got the part.

FIFTY SHADES OF GREY (ANASTASIA STEELE) 2015

AFTER playing Daenerys in Game of Thrones Emilia Clarle did not want to be known as "the bird that gets her tits out" and knocked back the part of Anastasia in Fifty Shades of Grey.

Don Johnson's daughter Dakota got it instead.

MONSTERS OF DEATH ROW

THE WORLD'S MOST EVIL MURDERERS AND THE HORRIFIC CRIMES THAT SAW THEM SENTENCED TO EXECUTION...

WHEN Sharon Clausse married Thomas Randolph in 2006 she should have thought twice before saying: "I do." Because evil Randolph had been accused once before of murdering a wife. Soon Sharon, too, would lie bleeding to death, in her own home, from horrific gunshot wounds...

THE WIFE SLAYER

DEATH SENTENCE: Evil Thomas Randolph was married six times

By BRAD CHADWICK

news@sundaysport.co.uk

THOMAS Randolph would have you believe he's a hero.

According to his version of the events of May 8, 2008, he awoke in the night at his home in Las Vegas, Nevada, having heard gunshots.

There on the floor he found his beloved wife, Sharon Clausse, surrounded by an ever-expanding puddle of blood caused by a gunshot blast to the head.

Randolph described it as "the grossest thing I've ever seen".

And there in the hallway was a masked intruder. Randolph gave chase, pursuing the "attacker" into his garage before shooting him dead.

He told police: "I don't remember if I saw the handle in his sweatshirt, or if I saw the handle in his pants, but he was doing something – he was going for something.

"He kind of rushed up on me a little bit and that's when I just pushed him, boom boom boom."

In a recorded phone call to police shortly after the incident, he'd screamed at the operator: "My wife's been shot! There's blood everywhere! Oh God, Sharon..."

Sounds convincing, doesn't it?

But the truth of this tragic event is that Randolph orchestrated the entire thing.

Too weak to kill his own wife himself, he'd arranged for a hitman – his friend Michael Miller – to do the dirty deed instead, and he wanted to make it look like a burglary gone wrong.

Ointment

But Randolph knew there could be no witnesses... no flies in the ointment.

IN COURT: Thomas Randolph

And so he not only set in motion the murder of his own partner, he then brutally gunned down the man he'd hired to fulfil this heinous plot.

Having been handed a death sentence by the State of Nevada in July this year, one of Sharon's closest friends, Sandra Miner, rejoiced at the punishment, saying: "If he got the death sentence twice, and if they could resurrect him, he deserves to be killed a second time."

Sharon's daughter, Colleen Beyer, added: "It's been way too long. It hurts every day.

"I feel that's really what he deserves. He's a monster. He's one evil, evil monster."

So what actually drove Randolph – a drug dealer and a handyman – to kill the woman he married?

Four life insurance policies worth a total of £280,000, that's what.

And, more amazingly, this wasn't the first time Randolph had seen a wife die in mysterious circumstances.

In 1983 he divorced his first missus, with whom he has one child.

Just a day after the divorce was finalised, he married Becky Gault.

Three years later, Becky – a cocaine user – was found dead in bed, a single gunshot wound to her head and a pistol in her hand.

At first, the cause of death seemed clear cut.

But detectives were not convinced it was a simple suicide.

Having learned how Randolph pocketed £500k in life insurance from Becky's demise, they charged him with murder.

It didn't look good for him – not only had he lined his pockets, a key witness – a man named Eric Tarantino – testified that Randolph had tried to hire him to kill Becky.

Randolph made Eric rehearse different ways to make her death look like an accident or a suicide – including him setting fire to their trailer, a car crash, rolling over her with a car at a campsite, a hunting accident, pushing her into a raging river and even switching her medication.

If Tarantino delayed in his preparation, then Randolph would beat him.

Tarantino testified: "It wasn't a friendship any more. It was a job. Every conversation was about Becky's death."

Insurance

A report from a local newspaper at the time, the Deseret News, stated: "Tarantino told the jury he and Randolph also discussed a suicide scenario but rejected the idea as Randolph said a suicide would make the insurance claims uncollectable.

"He said a few weeks later he was with Randolph at his parents' home. Randolph played a record by Rod Stewart called Foolish Behaviour, which tells the story of a man who kills his wife and makes it look like suicide.

"He said that Randolph asked him into the home to hear that one song."

The disturbing lyrics say: "I wanna kill my wife, I've got this urge to take her life.

"Or should I act quite cold and deliberate, or maybe blow out her brains with a bullet?

"They'll think suicide, they won't know who done it.

"I'm gonna kill my wife, I'm really gonna take her life."

Tarantino initially went along with the plan but eventually backed out, revealing: "I came right out and said, 'No'."

But when Randolph found out he flew into a rage, beating his friend so badly that he was in hospital for several days.

Fearing for his life after giving evidence against Randolph during preliminary court hearings, Tarantino – who was offered immunity from prosecution – fled to California.

But Randolph wasn't through with Tarantino yet, and he was caught offering an undercover police officer £8,000 to kill him!

Yet despite all the evidence against him, Randolph was eventually acquitted of Becky's murder.

His fourth wife, Francis, died in a hospital recovery room after heart surgery in 2004, and Randolph was the last person to see her alive.

Francis's daughter, Rachel Gaskins, told how Randolph stopped her from visiting her mum the day she died.

He insisted on having her body cremated within 24 hours of her death – and he didn't even let Rachel attend the funeral.

And no autopsy was ever performed.

In 2006, Randolph told family and friends his fifth wife, Leona Stapleton, had died from cancer.

Then came Sharon's untimely death – a crime that finally saw Randolph rounded up and charged in January 2009.

At the time of his arrest, Randolph had been so enraged at the presence of police that he had to be tasered in order to be brought under control.

It then took a eight years before his trial got under way.

When it did, the testimony of the two surviving wives gave a harrowing insight into Randolph's mind.

His first wife, Kathryn Thomas, took to the stand to describe how he'd been "controlling and manipulative and psychologically abusive".

She was just 18 when they got married.

Kathryn added: "He had many extra-curricular activities – namely other women.

Infidelity

"I wouldn't really call it a marriage. There was a lot of infidelity.

"I knew Becky. She expressed feeling fear when things escalated with Tom.

"I counselled her to leave any way she could. I told her I would help her if she needed me."

Randolph's third wife, Gayna Allmon, recalled an incident when his gun had gone off "accidentally" while he was cleaning it in front of her.

She was convinced he had been trying to kill her, and told jurors: "He was cleaning the gun on the dining room table.

"I was told there were no bullets in it, but it went off and put a hole in the kitchen floor not far from me.

"I could see the smoke coming up out of the floor.

"I'm certain that was an attempt to kill me."

On June 28 this year, Randolph, 62, was found guilty of the double murder of Sharon Clausse and Michael Miller on July 5.

He was sentenced to death.

Chief deputy district attorney Jacqueline Bluth called him "the worst of the worst", saying she was worried he posed a danger to society – even behind bars.

She added: "Shouldn't the death penalty be used in situations like this?

"It should be saved for those human beings in society who are the worst of the worst. And Thomas Randolph is exactly that."

TORY MP SORRY FOR DICK FLASH

'DON'T SHOW FACE': James Grundy

A NEW Tory MP has apologised after a video emerged showing him EXPOSING himself to a woman in a pub.

By GRACE HOOPER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

James Grundy, the MP for Leigh since December's general eelction, is facing calls to resign following the release of the video.

The footage captures Mr Grundy lowering his trousers and lifting his shirt to expose his genitals, as requested by a woman heard in the video.

The incident took place at the Rams Head Inn, Lowton, in 2007, shortly before Mr Grundy became a Tory councillor for Lowton, a position he held for 11 years.

Controversy

Mr Grundy said: "I apologise for my actions and for any offence caused."

It is understood that all people present were over 18.

Mr Grundy seemed aware of the potential for controversy at the time, as he can be heard in the video saying there is "no way" his face could be shown.

After that and other videos were recorded, a member of the public forwarded them to the headquarters of the Conservative Party.

But they allegedly received no response and Mr Grundy went on to serve as a Tory councillor before becoming an MP last year.

Conservative sources said the party was not aware of the complaint.

Mr Grundy's seat had been held by Labour since 1922 prior to his election.

MINX Millie Fenton has more in common with Kim Kardashian than just her sexy curves.

Because the gorgeous 32DD model has also starred in her own saucy SEX TAPE.

And while Kim's X-rated on-screen performance helped make her a global superstar, Millie is hoping her blue movie stays out of the public eye.

The 23-year-old blonde, from Biddulph, Staffs, said: "I made a naughty movie many, many years ago with an ex-boyfriend.

"It was really hot – both filming it and watching it back.

"You want round two – it makes you feel like a naughty porn star!"

Millie says she loves indulging in a spot of role play, too.

She added: "I love dressing up – I have a kinky maid's uniform, which is my absolute favourite.

"I like to get into role play while wearing it – you have to drop your feather duster and bend over to pick it up!

"I've been gently tied up and blindfolded, that was so hot.

"And I love the element of surprise and not knowing what's coming next.

"I'm more dominant usually, but I like to switch it up every now and again, too.

"It depends on my mood and also on the bloke I'm with.

"If I meet a really sexually dominant bloke who I fancy, I'm happy to let him take charge and have his wicked way!"

VEGAN FOOD? IT'S LIKE ALIENS' FORESKINS!

PICKY: Ozzy

Ozzy blasts meat-free tucker

By SIMON DEAN
simon@sundaysport.co.uk

ROCK legend Ozzy Osbourne has turned his fire on vegan food – saying it tastes like FORESKINS.

The Black Sabbath frontman said he was encouraged to try vegan food by his daughter, after a series of health concerns.

Referring to his new song Eat Me, Ozzy said the tune was inspired by both the famous case of German cannibal Armin Meiwes and his own rather low opinion of cruelty-free meat alternatives.

He said: "Have you tried that vegan stuff?

"It's like eating shit – it's got no fking taste!"

Ozzy, 71 – who shares daughters Aimee and Kelly and son Jack with his wife Sharon – added: "My daughter took me to a vegan Sunday breakfast.

"I looked at the menu and it's got bacon and scrambled eggs. I thought, 'You can't go wrong with that'.

"The bacon comes and it's fking square with pink bits in it. It looked like alien foreskins.

"They were going, 'No, it's good – it's got no gluten'.

"It's got no fking food!"

Pain

Ozzy also shared more about his 17-year battle with Parkinson's disease and his recent health woes, which have left him in great pain.

The iconic rocker revealed last month he's been dealing with the condition, which affects the nerve cells in the brain that produce dopamine, and causes muscle rigidity, tremors, and noticeable changes in speech and gait.

SEX IS A FLOP FOR ONE IN FIVE GIRLS

HALF of young women experience sex related personal distress, says a new study.

One in five women report having so-called female sexual dysfunction.

This relates to the degree of feeling guilty, embarrassed, stressed or unhappy about their sex lives.

Distress

The most common FSD was low sexual self-image, which caused distress for 11 percent of study participants.

Arousal, desire, orgasm and responsiveness dysfunction affected 9%, 8%, 7.9% and 3.4% of the study respectively.

Sexual self-image dysfunction was associated with being overweight, obese, living together with partner, not married, married and even breastfeeding.

Susan Davis, a senior author of the study, and Professor of Women's Health at Australia's Monash University, said: "Sexual wellbeing is recognised as a fundamental human right. It is of great concern that one in five young women have an apparent sexual dysfunction.

"This is a wake-up call to the community and signals the importance of health professionals being open and adequately prepared to discuss young women's sexual health concerns."

Baboons go ape in town after escape

A TROOP of baboons have escaped from a medical research facility in Sydney.

Police in New South Wales said the apes had been “going bananas” in the quiet suburb of Camperdown.

Footage on social media showed three baboons running past vehicles and shocked onlookers.

The Royal Prince Alfred Hospital later confirmed that the animals had escaped.

An employee there said they were used for medical studies, including research into diet and exercise.

On Twitter, New South Wales Police said cops and wildlife handlers quickly brought the situation “under control”.

The force joked: “Please let them do their job and don’t be tempted to pry, mates.”

A caller to local radio station 2GB told presenter Ben Fordham: “I was just having a gaze out at the car park and there were three baboons in there… I’m deadset serious… they even had shiny red bottoms.”

What the book?! Communist Party critic gets 10yrs

A COURT in eastern China has jailed a bookseller who took a sceptical look at the ruling Communist Party.

The Ningbo Intermediate People’s Court announced it has sentenced Gui Minhai, a naturalised Swedish citizen, to serve 10 years.

Gui admitted to his crime, agreed with the sentence and will not appeal, the court said.

For years, Gui sold books about Chinese leaders in the semi-autonomous Chinese city of Hong Kong.

He first disappeared in 2015, when he was believed to have been abducted by Chinese agents from his seaside home in Thailand.

China maintains tight control over all information and condemns criticism of its ruling Communist Party.

BATHTIME WITH BETHAN

WHO’S the lucky sud who gets to share a bath with Geordie Shore stunna Bethan Kershaw?

Well NOT Beau Brennan any more, it seems!

The stars have reportedly split after a series of explosive rows on the MTV reality show.

The two stars, both aged 25, are even said to have unfollowed each other on social media and have appeared to have removed all traces of their romance on Instagram.

Bethan and Beau met when they joined Geordie Shore for its nineteenth series last year and decided to pursue a romance after getting close in the house.

But Bethan doesn’t look too heartbroken – after posting these upbeat pics on her Instagram feed.

SEX MISS DODGES JAIL

‘They had sex twice and oral once’

LOVES TO RIDE: Barclay

By GRACE HOOPER

news@sundaysport.co.uk

A SUPPLY teacher has dodged jail after admitting shagging and giving oral sex to an underage male student.

Loryn Barclay, 25, was originally charged with sexual contact with a student but pleaded guilty to a lesser charge of harassment against a person younger than 17.

The then 17-year-old student testified he “initiated contact” and they “began communicating by social media and through text messages”.

Things eventually turned physical and the student said they “had sex twice and oral sex once”.

Court documents in Monett, Missouri, show Barclay admitted to police that the sexual contact happened between November 2016 and January 2017.

An affidavit in the case alleged that “Barclay said she performed oral sex on the boy in a car at a park located in Lawrence County, Missouri. She also admitted she had intercourse with the teen at the boy’s home in neighbouring Barry County.”

Barclay was sentenced to three years in prison, but that sentence was suspended in place of five years’ supervised probation.

A school source said: “You never really expect these things to take place at your own school.

“Parents are scandalised and the fact she’s escaped jail is baffling them. She should be behind bars.”

Dear Kelly,

I HAVE, over the years, read a number of letters from your readers, who say that they use fruit and vegetables in all sorts of ways during sex.

It came as a bit of a revelation to me, as I'd always been pretty "straight" when it came to sex with the wife.

But talking to the missus the other night we decided we'd like to spice up our bedroom activities.

I was wondering if you could advise me whether organic fruit and veg is better than the run-of-the-mill stuff?

RC, Glasgow

Kelly says…

ANY fruit or veg is OK, but make sure you cover it with a condom and wash it afterwards.

Dear Kelly,

I'M a 25-year-old girl and have been with my boyfriend, 22, for seven months.

We have an active sex life but there is just one problem – I cannot climax.

We literally have sex for two hours at a time and nothing ever happens for me.

It's frustrating me but I think it's frustrating him more.

I don't know what to suggest and I have never ever had this problem in the past.

Can you please help?

CG, Somerset

Kelly says…

TRY introducing sex toys into the bedroom – get him to stimulate your clit with one during normal penetration.

Oh lord, my romps with another man are good

Dear Kelly,

I'M having an affair with my landlord – he's 61 and I'm 28.

I'm married to a real loser who is a total wimp in bed.

He can't keep a job, leaves the flat in a mess and doesn't take me out anywhere, but goes out and gets pissed with his mates most nights.

I've known that my landlord has fancied me for some time as he's always nice to me and always compliments me on how I look.

I like to wear mini skirts with either high heels or knee-high boots.

I had been looking for a part-time job, but with no luck, until my landlord asked if I'd like to work for him as his personal assistant.

I accepted his offer and asked if I'd be sitting on his lap taking "dick-tation".

He just smiled and put his hand on my leg.

He said he wanted to fk me and we went back to his place.

We went to his bedroom and he took my clothes off and asked me to suck on his throbbing cock.

I gobbled him until his juice exploded down my throat.

He then had me on the bed, pounding me from behind – which was really great.

It was just the type of sex I like, and such a contrast to my deadbeat husband's weak efforts in bed.

He's been screwing me virtually every day and now wants me to move in with him.

What should do?

LJ, Glasgow

Kelly says…

IF this guy makes you happy then why not?

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week KELLY MCGREGOR has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Boozer loser hubby forces me to cheat!

Dear Kelly,

ME and my husband have been married for nearly 12 years.

But like so many other marriages, we seem to have hit a bit of a stale patch recently.

He's happy going to the pub with his mates, while I like to go out to clubs.

One Saturday night he'd gone for a drink at the pub as usual and I met my pals for our weekly knees-up.

We went to a few new gin places bars and by the time we got to a nightclub I was pretty tipsy.

I was standing at the bar when there was a tap on my shoulder and I turned to see my hubby next to me.

He was with his best mate and the pair of them looked ratted.

It seems they'd had a skinful in the pub and had taken a cab into town.

My fella was knocking back the whisky and I could tell he would soon collapse.

And sure enough he did – right onto a table of drinks.

A couple of bouncers rushed over and carried him out of the club as his pal staggered behind them.

That was that, I thought, but then I saw his mate walking back towards me.

He said he'd put my hubby into a taxi and told the driver to see him into our house.

So I took him to a quiet corner in case the bouncers saw him.

He sat with his head in his hands for a while and seemed to sober up.

Then we danced when the DJ played some slower numbers.

He began to feel my bottom and I didn't object.

In fact, I grabbed his stiffening manhood through his trousers.

After a while we left and took a cab to his place where we stripped off.

I gasped as he thrust his huge cock into me – he was like a wild stallion compared to my husband.

Seconds later I screamed as I had my first orgasm.

But that was just the beginning of a sizzling sex session that lasted almost until dawn.

Then it was time to go back to my boring husband.

However, I've been seeing his mate regularly and I intend to go on doing so.

Am I being ridiculous?

DM, Leics

Kelly says...

IF your fella wants to act like a prick, you carry on having a good time.

Dear Kelly,

I'VE been married for two years and there's nothing I like more than humiliating my hubby.

He lives his life just to serve and obey me, which suits me just fine.

And the more heartless and bitchy I am, the more he worships me.

Although I use him sexually, I rarely let him fk me fully.

I am more than satisfied in the bedroom and often order him to lick me out for hours on end – climaxing several times in a session, and usually drenching him in the process.

However, I'm now wondering how our future relationship will develop.

Do you think we should seek counselling, because I know this is not an entirely "natural" sort of behaviour?

FR, Notts

Kelly says...

IF he's not complaining, then carry on. But let him have a leg-over a bit more often.

Sexual tension makes me a flop in bedroom

Dear Kelly,

I WENT out with my mates a few weeks ago and in the course of a boozy night I felt myself getting horny.

I have a girlfriend I've been going out with for three years, but I put her to the back of my mind as I danced with a dirty blonde.

In the end she asked me to take her home.

It was obvious she was after a shag – and I must say I was raring to give her one.

The problem came when we had both stripped off and dived into bed.

I spent ages giving her oral and she later did the same for me.

But nothing she could do with her tongue or hand could raise my dick.

She was very understanding about it and at the back of my mind I had the feeling that I was unable to do the business because I was thinking deep-down about my girlfriend.

Anyway, we agreed to meet the next night at her place. And it was so different.

I had a raging stalk-on from the moment I walked in and shagged her senseless for hours.

DW, Edinburgh

Kelly says...

STAY away from drinking too much booze then, if you want to carry on cheating on your poor girlfriend.

Dear Kelly,

I'M a student and to earn extra cash I'm working in a bank.

It's quite boring work but one of the mortgage advisors is really fit.

She's 38, and I'm 21.

She's got blonde hair, a good body and lovely long legs.

For a couple of weeks we've been going to a nearby bar for our lunch.

As the days went on she started telling me how crap her husband is in bed and what type of sex she likes.

Then I asked if she fancied going for a drink one evening.

She said 'yes' and as I was giving her a lift home afterwards I parked up and in an instant she had her gob around my knob.

Needless to say it was a short step to me giving her one on the back seat.

Since then we've had loads of steamy sessions.

She's a very horny lady and now wants to leave her husband, to be with me.

I don't want to give up my single ways but I want to keep on shagging her.

Any advice?

KL, Teesside

Kelly says...

BE honest with her.

‘I once pulled a guy in a shop when I’d only nipped out for some wine…’

‘MY most outrageous sex fantasy is any form of naughty action with a red-hot stranger.

I’m a very sexual person, but in real life I tend to be picky and look for relationships, so I don’t often hop into bed with a bloke.

Which is why I fantasise like mad about throwing caution to the wind and getting it on quickly with a total random.

And every now and again, that has actually happened!

I masturbate and watch porn movies focussed on quick, easy, slutty sex – gangbangs, dogging, and the ones where a taxi driver picks a girl up and they go at it in a layby.

I’ve never done anything that extreme in real life, but I once pulled a guy in a shop when I nipped in for a bottle of wine and fooled about with him down an alleyway!

And I’ve had some very quick Tinder hookups, too – like one minute I’m in the bath having a quiet night in, next I’ve matched with someone, sent and received nude pics and then met them for one thing and one thing only – one guy I shagged in my local graveyard!

That was so exciting!’

ALWAYS HOME OF TOPLESS BABES

KINKY Christina Jolie can't get enough of ANAL SEX and says she loves fellas shoving their cocks up her rear end.

The 30-year-old, from Egham, Surrey, said: "I've always loved a bit of bum fun. It feels a bit 'wrong' and filthy.

"I must be rich in nerve endings around my bumhole as I just go wild when I'm touched there.

"I've had the most amazing orgasms from anal sex – way more powerful than from 'regular' sex.

"I've also had a number of toys up there too, such as anal beads and dildos."

The 34D beauty added: "The guys I've been with have been really into anal play, and they're over the moon I love it, too.

"I know it feels extra tight for the bloke and I love that I'm able to give them that.

"Everyone's a winner!

"I'm naughty aren't I? I can't help it!"

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Smallc and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

WELCOME to interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

MORGAN LEES

MARVELLOUS Morgan Lees would be the perfect catch for fisherman Wayne Campbell.

Wayne, 32, from the Isle of Man, regularly casts his net in the Irish Sea – but its Derby stunna Morgan who he really wants.

The 29-year-old blonde beauty boasts 32E palm-stretchers and Wayne has well and truly bit her bait.

He drooled: "Morgan is the hottest girl I've ever seen.

"I wouldn't mind her riding my waves, if you know what I mean!"

BECKY DEE

PRISON officer Alan Purvis keeps criminals in check during his day job... but he wouldn't mind keeping Beck Dee in line at night!

The 37-year-old, from Stockton-on-Tees, begged us for a sexy snap of 29-year-old Cardiff beauty Ella.

He said: "The boys in prison always have pictures up in their cells of glamour girls, but none of them are fitter than Becky.

"Thanks for this corker – she looks amazing."

ROSIE LEE

OPTICIAN Ian Bentley can't get enough of his ideal girl, bifocal babe Rosie Lee.

The 42-year-old, from Chester, loves girls with glasses and says Tamworth-born beauty Rosie, 22, is a stunna.

Ian said: "Girls with glasses really get me going and Jenny has just the right pair. She's unbelievably sexy.

"I'd love to get her in the shop and give her an eye test.

"Plus, I might have the chance to cop a feel of her 30F norks!"

atlanta MORENO

By WENDY THOMAS news@sundaysport.co.uk

YOU'VE heard of Atlanta, Georgia – well here's Atlanta, GORGEOUS!

The 22-year-old Babestation fave loves the effect her amazing curves have on viewers.

She told us: “I can't believe how horny my viewers are. They are really quite imaginative when they describe what they want to me to do – and what they want to do with me.

Diddle

“I have to admit that some of the saucy suggestions make me wet and make no mistake, when I'm on screen on Babestation I am genuinely horny.

“More than once after my shift I've had to scurry off to the loo and have a little diddle, just to finish myself off.”

Now there's a nice thought, fellas.

INJURY HAZARD: Eden is in the stands again

CITY REAL GOOD FOR A DRAW

REAL Madrid suffered their second league defeat of the season at the weekend when going down 1-0 to Levante and the Whites were dealt a blow with the news that Eden Hazard will miss this evening's Champions League home tie with Manchester City through injury.

The former Chelsea winger will also sit out Sunday's Clasico with Barcelona at the Bernabeu. They sit second in the La Liga table two points behind Barca, so it is fair to say this is a massive week for Zinedine Zidane.

Hazard is no loss for Madrid given he is just back from injury and has not yet recaptured the brilliance of Stamford Bridge. This is not the same Real Madrid that dominated Europe with a hat-trick between 2016-18 and they have, largely, struggled for goals since Cristiano Ronaldo swopped Madrid for Turin.

They are strong defensively, however and their central midfield pairing of Casemiro and Frederico Valverde are a match for anyone. I don't expect to see a goal-fest and it would not surprise me if we saw a tight cagey affair with City having plenty of possession.

City are 13/10 at BetVictor to take a lead back to the Etihad next month with Los Blancos 19/10 and the draw at 11/4. I don't think a draw would be the worst result in the world for Pep Guardiola's side and, while they would love to get an away goal in the Spanish capital, it would not surprise me if City went with three central defenders in Madrid.

Balance

City will be hoping Raheem Sterling is back having missed the win at the King Power. As things stand City will not be able to defend their Champions League crown if they lift the trophy in Istanbul but they are 4/1 favourites. It is likely that UEFA will want them out of this year's competition sooner rather than later. This evening's referee is Italian Daniele Orsato.

All five British sides inthe last 32 of the Europa League picked up positive results in the 1st leg but a number of ties are still in the balance including Rangers at Braga this evening. Gers are 10/3 to win in Portugal and 4/5 to qualify for the last 16 with Braga 10/11 at BetVictor.

Braga scored three times in the second half to beat Vitoria Setubal on Sunday and I feel they can overturn their 3-2 deficit from Ibrox last week when I felt they dominated long periods of the game. Braga to qualify at 10/11 must be the recommendation.

Arsenal are on a roll but the Gunners again rode their luck against Everton on Sunday and I'm not convinced they will brush aside the challenge of Olympiacos as easily as the odds suggest they ought tomorrow night.

Arsenal are 1/2 to win the second leg with the Greek Super League leaders 5/1 and the draw at 16/5. Olympiacos are 6/4 in the double chance market – win or draw – and that is the tip.

JUST LIKE TYSON: Fury battered Wilder in Vegas

Rematch KOs battle of Brits

JOSHUA HAS TO WAIT FOR FURY v WILDER III

BRITISH boxing fans will have to wait for the fight of the century between Tyson Fury and Anthony Joshua.

By PAUL THOMAS

The Gypsy King is back on English soil after battering Deontay Wilder to win the World Heavyweight title in Las Vegas on Saturday night.

Now all everyone wants to see is an all-British unification bout between Fury and Joshua.

But Wilder has the right to a rematch — and it looks as though he's going to take it.

The American has been making bizarre excuses for the defeat and reckons his walk-on costume was too heavy. It meant he had no energy left for the fight itself.

That must go down as the most ridiculous reason for losing a title of all time.

And Joshua's promoter Eddie Hearn believes he'll have to wait for Fury v Wilder III to play out before his man can step into the ring with his fellow Brit.

The defeated champion has 30 days to claim his rematch.

Hearn said: "I don't think anyone wants to see a third fight because it was that conclusive but we will see if he exercises that clause.

"I probably expect Wilder to do that – I don't see where else he has to go. But our mandatory challenger, Kubrat Pulev, is also promoted by Bob Arum, like Tyson Fury, so there is a very easy manoeuvre there if Wilder doesn't accept the rematch to go straight into this undisputed fight in the summer.

"That is what we have to push for initially.

Undisputed

"If Wilder comes back and says 'no, I'm having my rematch' then that is due for July or August, and it doesn't really matter because we fight Pulev at Spurs in June and this fight happens in November or December.

"But our preference is to go straight into it because if we went straight into it, it would be undisputed."

Fury destroyed Wilder and floored him twice before the towel came in during the seventh round.

The Gypsy King was mobbed at Manchester Airport and gave a message to his fans.

He said: "I know I can do better. I aim to get back to the gym straightaway, to work on balance and straight punches.

"I'm going to be putting people to sleep. Don't forget people said I can't punch. Wilder himself said I've got 'pillow fists' in the past.

"Well it didn't do badly for an old fat guy who can't punch, did I?"

KLOPP BANS TITLE TALK

I don't think it's all over says Jurgen

JURGEN Klopp is refusing to talk about the title despite Liverpool being just FOUR wins away from glory.

Liverpool need only 12 points from their remaining 11 matches to take the crown for the first time since 1990. That assumes Man City win all their games — and the pair have to meet at the Etihad next month.

It looked as though the Reds were going to taste their opening defeat of the season when West Ham went 2-1 in the second-half at Anfield on Monday night. But a howler from keeper Lukas Fabianski and a lucky late winner by Sadio Mane secured a dramatic comeback.

By JOHN ANTHONY

The Hammers are in the bottom three but put up a brilliant fight that gives them great hope of beating the drop.

And Klopp says anyone thinking Liverpool will brush aside the likes of Watford, Bournemouth and Crystal Palace in the coming weeks have another thing coming.

He said: "The next three points are always the hardest to win.

"It was always like this and we've never seen it differently.

"Could I have wished for a better position to go into these last 11 games? No, I would never have thought it was possible, but each one of them is really difficult and we respect that a lot.

"We don't expect one easy game, nobody wants to go through easily, we just have to be ready for work and for the hardest work."

CAUTIOUS: Klopp

Yet another club record was sent tumbling against the Hammers. Klopp's men matched Bill Shankly's 1972 team that won 21 league games on the spin at Anfield.

They are also level with Man City who clocked up 18 Premier League wins in a row in 2017.

The Reds have already won as many games — 26 — as Arsenal's Invincibles did in their unbeaten 2003-04 season.

Klopp pretends he doesn't know about these records — but he let his guard down, saying: "It's so special, the numbers are incredible, so difficult.

Rougher

"We said it a couple of times, we spoke about wonderful games, brilliant games, we spoke about hard games, difficult games.

"You can only have the number of wins you have if you win all of these games.

"The difficult ones, the easy ones — if there ever was one — the brilliant ones and the rougher, more grumpy ones.

"In the end, that's what counts. We all know it's very special, but in the moment we are really just in the situation and want to recover and prepare for the next one."

Even the players are breaking records with Trent Alexander Arnold clocking up his 12th assist of the season — the joint record for a defender.

Klopp added: "Everybody has to contribute, everybody has to bring on the pitch what he is able to do — and the boys do a lot to bring him or Andy in the position."

GETTING MESSI FOR BERNARDO

BERNARDO Silva is the latest Manchester City player to hint that he could be heading for the exit.

By ANDY MILLOM

Pep's lads have been banned from the Champions League for two years after falling foul of Financial Fair Play rules.

The club are going to appeal and insist they have done nothing wrong.

But it would be a big blow to be away from Europe's top table for a couple of seasons.

There has been loud chatter about Raheem Sterling heading to Real Madrid and his fellow winger also has Spain on his mind.

Silva says he would love to play with Lionel Messi at Barcelona — or City although it seems unlikely that the Argie genius would step out of the Champions League at this late stage of his career.

Bernardo revealed: "I play with Cristiano Ronaldo in the national team and if I played with Messi, being able to say that I played with the best in history would be a pleasure, but it is a complicated matter. At City or in Barça it will be welcome."

At the same time, Silva has been paying tribute to boss Pep Guardiola.

He added: "You learn a lot every day, it is a pleasure and undoubtedly one of the best or if not the best and the results speak for themselves.

"Since I arrived two and a half years ago, everything we earn here is very much due to Pep so it's a pleasure to have him."

Guardiola is adamant that he won't use any Champions League ban as an excuse to leave the Etihad.

He is thought to have a break clause at the end of this season that means he could walk away.

That said, Juventus president Andrea Agnelli may have other ideas at some point in the near future.

He said: "It would be a heresy to say that nobody thinks of Guardiola.

"Right now, he is extremely happy where he is. If I'm happy where I am, it's unlikely that I would leave that club."

BATTLE CRY: Noble

Noble up for fight as Hammers rock Kop

WEST Ham skipper Mark Noble believes the Hammers showed the quality they need to survive against Liverpool.

Despite starting the game in the relegation zone, the Londoners gave the runaway Premier League leaders one of the toughest games of the season.

They led 2-1 in the second half and had some good chances to score more.

The Liverpool machine needed a little luck to score two late goals for a heartbreaking 3-2 scoreline.

But the Hammers skipper knows how well his team played — and it bodes well for the battle ahead.

He said: "I have been to Anfield many times in the past and it is not enjoyable at all.

"You normally sit there in the changing room afterwards and you are beaten and you know you are beaten by a much better team.

"But this time we were in the changing room after and gutted we did not come away with more.

"Liverpool are the best team in the country by a mile, but we gave them a good game, we played well, had a lot of chances and scored two good goals.

Battle

"We are not a team who are going to roll over. It is just a shame that this season, more than any season I have been involved in, individual errors have really cost us.

"But going into a relegation battle, you have to take the positives out of that and you cannot dwell on it.

"The spirit that we played in, the way we played, with pace, and the way we attacked, the way we moved the ball, we can be proud of the performance."

Boss David Moyes echoed Noble's words about individual errors.

He said: "In the period where we were winning 2-1 I didn't think we were desperately under pressure.

"We had done a really good job.

"It's really disappointing to say that individual mistakes have cost us.

"Liverpool with the quality of players and what they've done this year, they have the ability to score goals everywhere and in different ways."

UNITED IN RAM RAID

Juve to offer Aaron plus £80m for Pogba

By JOHN ANTHONY

AARON Ramsey could make a shock summer move to Manchester United — as part of a Paul Pogba deal.

Juventus are desperate to get their former superstar midfielder back to Turin. And reports in Italy suggest they could make an £80m offer — plus Ramsey — to get the transfer done.

The former Arsenal midfielder has struggled to settle at Juventus since joining the Italians on a free transfer last summer. The Welsh midfielder has had injury problems and has started just eight times this season.

Boss Maurizio Sarri mainly uses him as a sub and Ramsey got the winner against SPAL at the weekend.

Juventus value him at around £35m and believe the 29-year-old would be the ideal player to swap for Pogba.

United could be open to the move given how little the Frenchman has played for them this season.

New signing Bruno Fernandes has fitted in well and it's hard to see how he could play alongside Pogba in the long-term.
